

Preservation Alliance NEWS

Vol. 3 Number 1 October 1984

CATALOG OF HISTORIC SITES

Preservation Alliance continues to seek a matching grant to publish a documentation of the historic sights in Daviess Co. The Heritage Council's Survey as supplemented by select historic sights brought to Preservation Alliance's attention by our intent would be featured in this book. Our recent grant application with the Kentucky Heritage was rejected. However, this Council encouraged us to apply for a Federal Survey and Planning Grant.

NEW ADDITIONS AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Preserving and Maintaining the Older Home, by Shirley Hanson (690.83)

Renovating the Victorian House, by Katherine Rusk (643.7)

Restoring Houses of Brick and Stone, by Nigel Hutchins (643.7)

WALKING TOUR BROCHURE PUBLISHED

Downtown Owensboro, Inc. is pleased to enclose a copy of our "hot off the press" walking tour brochure which features some of the many notable buildings in the downtown. It was written and published by D.O.I. through a grant from the Kentucky Heritage Council and assistance from the Tourist Commission.

Local artist Lou Ann Overton volunteered her illustrating talents and the cover design came from an 1892 Owensboro souvenir booklet.

The brochure will be distributed at hotels and businesses for use by tourist and Owensboro residents.

The selection of buildings was determined by the architectural significances of the structures and by their locations.

The agony and the ecstasy.

It takes hard work to turn the quality and value of an old home into your own special home.

But on the way, you meet other people who share your vision and experience.

The turn-of-the-century J.Z. Moore Neighborhood, surrounding 13th & Allen Streets, is alive with ongoing restoration.

On the evening of Wednesday, October 17, you are invited to visit homes being restored and to talk with their owners about what they have learned in the process. Admission is free.

For information on Time & Place call 685-8327, 9to12, 1to4, M-F.

J.Z. Moore Homes Visit

Preservation Alliance
of Owensboro-Daviess County

Preservation Alliance

of Owensboro-Daviess County, Inc.
224 Allen Street, Owensboro, KY 42301
(502) 683-2060